THE HOTEL PROPOSITION.

The Bay St. Louis hotel proposition remains open. Some one at some time is coming sooner or later and will take advantage of the unusual opportunity. It is seemingly a situation where we are sleeping on our rights? No location offers a similar opportunity.

ST. STANISLAUS COLLEGE NOTES FOR THE WEEK.

Stanislaus Receives Defeat.
Last Saturday the Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws went to New Orleans to receive the first defeat from the N. O. Boys High. Although the Rock-A-Chaws have played Boys High almost every year, never till Saturday were they defeated by the Eastonites.

In the first quarter the Rock-A-Chaws received the ball and ran it back a short distance. Made first down but were unable to make it a second time when signals were given for a kick. The play was executed perfectly. But when the Hi School safety, Leggett, received the ball he made a wide-end run for a touch down. The game then tightened up. Stanislaus made several first downs, but was unable to make them when first downs meant a touch down.

In the second quarter the game was a deadlock, both teams moving the ball up and down the field, but neither side was able to get the ball near the goal until a brilliant end run gave High the ball on Rock-A-Chaws two-yard line. On three plays they advanced the ball about a yard. On the fourth down they made a two-yard penalty, that gave them four more downs and three yards to go. Their line plunging was unsuccessful, even the Heisman Shift, which they had used before with such amazing results. On the third down the Bay Boys were penalized for being off sides. High then had the ball a yard from the goal, and four more downs to make it. They worked a cross tackle, which gained for them about a foot. On the next play, however, they carried the ball over for a touch down. They had been held for nine consecutive downs, during which time the ball was no further than three yards from the goal. In the third quarter the Rock-A-Chaws made an attempt to rally, but all they could do was to hold them even.

In the fourth quarter a bad pass by the center and a fumble by one of the back field men gave High the ball on our twenty-yard line. It was from this position that High scored their final touch down. High School has one of the strongest eleven's it has had in years, and should win the Prep School Championship again this season. If they continue to play the same brand of ball they played last Saturday against the Bay Boys they will be champions with little trouble.

The Rock-A-Chaws were supported in their battle Saturday, by many of their old students and followers who hated to see their game go down to defeat at the hands of High School. The Boys appreciated this very much as things seemed mighty gloomy at times.

Life at S. S. C. is very pleasant these fall days. Everyone is filled with the good old College Spirit, which pays a great part in such life.

On Wednesday, October 12th, a committee from the graduating class was selected to appear before the proper officials, to ask for a half holiday in commemoration of Columbus Day. The committee did as it was directed. It returned with their request filled in part. Instead of securing a half holiday they secured a quarter holiday. So the boys at S. S. C. did not forget Columbus even in all their work.

The enrollment at S. S. C. has grown considerably in the past week or so. Among the new comers is Schlozel, in whom the college has a star football player. He is rounder into form and is expected to appear on the gridiron for S. S. C. in their next game.

Class '22 held a class meeting on Wednesday, the 19th for the purpose of ordering the class rings and pins. The samples that were ordered some time ago were received Tuesday. Among the samples received was one ring and pin that satisfied the majority of the class. So these were chosen for the present. As samples have been ordered from other houses the class will not come to a definite decision until these samples have been received and examined.

It is rumored around about that Heiffer and Gex want their "Quarter Back."

Socially.

Last Sunday evening was held the 10th annual of the Bay St. Louis Yacht and Athletic Club.

COAST SANITARY INSPECTION COMPLETED.

GULFPORT, Oct. 22nd.—J. C. Lyons, State Sanitary Inspector, has just completed an inspection of Mississippi Coast points from Bay St. Louis to Pascagoula and reports conditions in very good shape. The Coast as a whole, he states, averaged about 90 per cent. This is much better than was shown in the last inspection made by Mr. Lyons. He spoke most gratifying of the improvements that had been made since his last time here. Only five arrests were made in the whole inspection, two being at Bay St. Louis, two at Gulfport and one at Biloxi. Mr. Lyons left to make an inspection of Hattiesburg Monday from which point he went to Jackson to attend the meeting of the County Health Officers.

DELTA SECTION COMING BACK TO ITS OWN.

Planters Who Were Down and Out, Back to Normalcy Again—Spent Money on Gulf Coast in Former Days With Prodigality as if Holders in "Fee Simple of the Sands of Pactolus."

(By Rev. Nellus Downing.)

The far famed Mississippi Delta region, second only to the delta of the Nile in the wonderful fertility of its soil, is coming back strong. The financial collapse of a couple of years ago, following a golden spell of unexampled prosperity, left this section in a financial and social condition that at times was reminiscent of the "re-destruction" (as I call it) period of the latter sixties. One of the most trustworthy signs is the alacrity with which the people are paying bills "long over due." The Delta folks never fail to pay up when they have the money—if not one must wait and the full payment is sure eventually. Quite a number of the last couple of years' accounts, not a few of which were "charged off" as being liquidated with splendid readiness. The Bankers have been telling us they correspond these encouraging things:

(1) Banking deposits are bounding skyward from 25 to 100 per cent. (2) Frozen loans are being liquidated. (3) Charged off accounts are almost all being paid up. (4) Notes have been taken up even ahead of time. The planters and farmers have been singing songs like this to me: "We have feed enough stored up to 'carry on' through the winter time and even through generally for about two years. (2) "Our livestock will get through the winter all right." (3) "Next time we can produce our crops at a pretty low cost." (4) "If cotton prices go up there will be a greater average, but not so great as to wreck prices." (5) Systematic poisoning of the boll weevil is steadily reducing damage generally."

The most optimistic Delta enthusiast could never have dreamed of so speedy a return from the "lean years" to the period of plenty. No section of our country got the smash of the Delta bad to endure. It made a mad plunge. It was smashed utterly. Cotton of the highest production, cost, cheated with an abnormally low price market. Right now collateral cotton at a 5 cent rate values about 15c. The Delta is progressive region, alive with men of brains, energy vision and progressive thought. It can never get a knock out blow, but it ever stays in the financial and agricultural ring. Why should the Mississippi Delta? The reason is not far to seek. The Coast is the recreation center of the Delta folks to a very great extent; the Coast is the summer and winter resort of a great number of planters all through this region. Quite a number of the Delta people have summer homes on the Coast. Your readers will recall the swarm of Delta people that lavished their wealth a couple of years ago from Waveland to Pascagoula; Biloxi and Gulfport being the chief beneficiaries. They used their own homes, rented residences, filled the hotels, purchasing everywhere, filled the drug stores, grocery stores, and even filled the churches, spending money as freely as if each one held the fee-simple of the sands of Pactolus!

So your patient readers, see why they should be interested in the Delta and in the Deltaans; and what your writer has to offer about both. Clarksdale, Miss., Oct. 13, 1921.

MEETING AT COURT HOUSE TOMORROW NIGHT.

It is Proposed to Organize the Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Club Tomorrow—Sunday—Night, at 7 O'clock.—The Public Interested Invited to Attend and Participate in Deliberations.

Pursuant to a call, a meeting was held at the Court House on Thursday, October 14th, for the purpose of reorganizing the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club as to include in its charter several features which do not exist. Owing to a combination of conditions over which there was no control, there was only a small attendance, among those present were: R. W. Webb, Mayor; James Geary, E. J. Laeotte, C. B. Penrose, Dr. Cassius Peacock, W. H. Starr, Santos Shields, Bernard C. Shields, E. J. Leonard, C. A. Breath, Edw. Schwartz, E. J. Arceneaux, Mr. Bernard C. Shields was elected chairman, pro tem.

Following this meeting, Chairman Shields has issued a call for tomorrow—Sunday—night, 7 o'clock, at the court house for the purpose of entering into permanent organization. It is urged that a large attendance be present, in order that the matters at hand might be discussed from every angle, and that the proposed club be permanently organized and the work following towards making the project a reality entered upon. In order that the club may be made a going concern there much has to be done, and it is proposed to "get busy" at the earliest possible moment.

In issuing his call for tomorrow night's meeting, Chairman Shields has embodied the following:

There will be another general meeting at the Court House, Bay St. Louis, at 7 o'clock P. M., on Sunday evening, October 23rd, when it is hoped there will be a large attendance. It is felt that this club should embrace all forms of sport, such as yachting, golf, shooting, etc., and also have facilities for dancing, informal social functions, pool, etc.

To insure success, every sport-loving man must make up his mind to do his share and make the club a "go." A successful club will be a great benefit and pleasure to those who annually visit Bay St. Louis and Waveland as well as to the residents of the Gulf Coast; therefore, you are urged to attend this meeting.

Remember the place, date and hour!

Marriage of Miss Vivian Tomasich, of Bay St. Louis, to Mr. Michael S. Power, of New Orleans, Thursday Evening.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was celebrated at the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, six o'clock Thursday afternoon, in the presence of a number of friends, when Miss Vivian Tomasich, of Bay St. Louis, and Mr. Michael S. Power, of New Orleans, the contracting parties. Rev. Father Gmelch, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride, wore a traveling costume, with hat and gloves to match, was led to the altar by her brother-in-law, Mr. Edmund F. The beautiful bride was attended by Miss Margaret Power, sister of the groom. The groom was Mr. Power, of New Orleans.

Owing to the fact that the bride's sister, who was to be bridesmaid, was unable to attend, only an informal reception was given and a few informal dances were given at the house of the bride, after which the bride and groom left for New Orleans.

BIG JEWELRY SALE BEGINS TODAY AT LOCAL STORE.

Templet, proprietor of the Bay Jewelry Store, corner Main and Front streets, has secured the services of Harry Holtzmann, of New Orleans, an auctioneer of national reputation, to conduct a mammoth sale of diamonds, jewelry, silverware, etc., commencing today and continuing all of next week. In fact, there will be two mammoth sales daily, one during the afternoon and the other at night.

Mr. Templet also informs "The Echo" he is not going out of business, far from it, but that he is simply taking advantage of this opportunity to reduce his stock at this time to reduce his stock.

FAMILY OF E. J. BOWERS LEAVE GULF COAST TO LIVE IN NEW ORLEANS.

(Gulfport Herald.)

Hon. E. J. Bowers has moved all the household goods to New Orleans, where he will practice law, retaining an office in Gulfport. Mrs. Bowers, Miss Sallie Bowers and Little Margaret Dabney left yesterday morning to join him and assist in becoming settled in the new home. They were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Riggs Thursday night. Mr. Bowers has been so long identified with political, legal and business life of Mississippi Coast and the State, and his family has been so active and popular in its social life, that it is needless to say that the entire community will deeply regret their permanent removal, though the short distance from New Orleans leaves expectation of frequent visits between friends.

Miss Posey, sister of Mrs. Bowers, and Miss Minnie Bowers, sister of Mr. Bowers, are still at the home place in Gulfport, and will go to New Orleans when matters here are arranged. Mrs. Kemp will be with Mrs. T. H. Barrett for the present. Posey Bowers is already established in the practice of law in New Orleans and has recently made business connections which testify to the recognition accorded this sterling young man. The other son, Sam, who has been in the bond investment business, will join the family and engage in business. Both these young men saw service across the ocean during the war.

DEATH OF AGED AND HIGHLY ESTEEMED LADY.

Mrs. Catherine Canna Caldwell, widow of George Caldwell, died in New Orleans Tuesday while visiting at the home of her sons. She was 71 and had gone to New Orleans for treatment and to be with her children, when the end came rather unexpectedly.

The remains reached Bay St. Louis Wednesday morning and were taken to the late residence on the beach front, the funeral occurring Thursday afternoon, and interment at Cedar Rest Cemetery in the family burial plot.

Mrs. Caldwell was 79 years of age at the time of her death. She had been a resident of Bay St. Louis for well nigh fifty years, and was well known and highly esteemed by all who knew her. She is survived by four sons and one sister, Mrs. Garner, with whom she made her home in this city. A grown, and only daughter, Miss Ollie Caldwell, preceded her mother to the grave some years since. The death of Mrs. Caldwell is deeply deplored and the bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the community.

COLUMN DE BULL. By Faller Ball

Saturday's Football Game in New Orleans.

In the course of human events we found ourselves over in the great Sou. Metrop last Sat. along with about 9-10 ths. of the Bay's populus there to witness another American exercise.

The newspapers had already gone to great length to chronicle the chronic sadness, and as they were very well versed in the poetry of the spontaneous occasion, far be it from me to indulge in any outbursts of darnphule comments. Let me but say, dear mournful brother, that when we wended ourselves out of the big gate, the great weight of our body was concentrated in our heart and our crestfallen appearance would lead any solicitous friend to guess that we'd just attended the funeral of some gink what owed us a lot of Iron men. They said "Solicitous Friend" would be ready to take oath that the deceased had a heavily attended ceremony.

Yes, there were, as I paused to remark upon entering, a lot of Bay folks. Why, I heard one freckled Highschoolian wittily remark that if the census taker got to workin' at the Bay on that day, that the Gov. would ur off'n the map.

The Rarer said that he was the only real satisfied one, for he'd been rarin' to see the big city and now was ready to quit all that French learnin', and go help Pa.

Well, we run the gauntlet of about 10 'leven police and got on the Side-line with a fake badge (and as soon as Miss Misery come we hunted company).

The principal was a fella called Legget, and we saw him live up to his name. If ever he pays us a visit Old Smiless is going to give him a chance to repeat.

The score? Well, we're the hired score-keeper so we will refrain from buttin' in on another man's job.

The opposition had about a million Rooters and Rooters on the job and the way they cut up made me sea-sick—did you ever see so many darnphules goin' crazy over nothin'?

I heard that they piled up on Prof. and tried their best to destroy his Chaplin. Pullin' moustaches ain't fair ball, I say. Jeff. College was innocent spectators on the sides and the poor lil lambs are full of fleecce, ready for the shears of our friend, Sic 'em.

You got to hand it to Matrimony Sam, he didn't have but one leg, but he worked that member overtime.

Somebody throwed sand in Cuba Libre's carburetor and that killed the horsepower on the day when it come to speed.

Well—anyway—

We all migrated silently down to the Ellen N's garage at 9:40 of the P. M., and you'd a thought it was a orphan excursion goin' on a visit to the family graveyard, till Bro. Peter bursted open a box and passed round the weed, then everybody's trouble went up in smoke.

Now, that's what I call a real Good Samaritan job, what?

That's a bit of history, and we'll pass up the lesson. Let's Go!

A legless man, 69 years of age recently made a 1,500 mile journey from Spokane to Omaha in a cart which re-operated with his hands. He made an average of 11 miles each day.

David Riddle, at Baltimore, Md., whom we regret is so ill that it is impossible for him to take training.

"Clean-Up" Squad Pays Promised Visit.

The "Clean-Up" Squad, has paid the promised visit, and had only 46 cases to deal with, and about 97 old cases were gone over with Mr. Gordon Bishop, representing the Veterans' Bureau. The small amount of cases dealt with shows how thoroughly this County was covered by the office of the executive secretary of the Knights of Columbus Welfare Bureau. One man was sent to hospital and two recommended to same.

To Organize Clement R. Bontemps Post of American Legion.

Mr. Pratt, the most genial of the squad representing the American Legion, has promised us to return at an early date when we will reorganize the Clement R. Bontemps Post.

At present we have over the required number signed up, but wishing to clear up the greater part of the work on hand, we will defer our plans until a later date. Due notice will be sent all ex-service men when we will start activities. We must be represented, there is only one way to do so, and that is to get busy and keep alive.

Some very enthusiastic workers from Cascar, Lakeshore, Waveland, Delisle, Penton—and Kila, the liveliest bunch—and our own, will be ready to put Bay St. Louis Post on the map with latter developments that will count.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY C. GAGER.

Meeting of St. Joseph Alumni.

MEETING OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Entertained Tuesday Afternoon at Home of Mrs. Frank B. Pittman, on Weston Farm—Guests Given Squirrel Dinner.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Bay St. Louis, were entertained in regular session at the home of Mrs. Frank B. Pittman, residing on the Weston Farm, below Picayune, on Tuesday afternoon.

Some twenty-odd ladies were present, members, as were also Messrs. E. S. Drake, Jno. Ososnach and Dr. J. A. Evans, who accompanied the parties on the long trip by auto.

Mrs. Pittman entertained the ladies at squirrel dinner, and the guests were unanimous in the praise of the hospitality extended them both by Mr. and Mrs. Pittman. The home is beautiful and one of the most comfortable in the county, equipped with all modern conveniences, and the farm is the very last word in all that go to make a modern farm, and a visit over the extensive grounds, the peacan orchard, and to the different outhouses where the implements are kept, and to the pens where the poultry and livestock are housed all proved features worthy of the visit.

The business meeting of the Society opened the activities of the winter season, and was one of unusual success.

The officers of the Woman's Missionary Society are: Mrs. J. A. Evans, president; Mrs. C. C. McDonald, secretary; Mrs. W. A. McDonald, treasurer; Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, treasurer, D. S.

Hibernia Cottage at Pass Christian Closed for the Season.

Mrs. James Freret, who has so successfully conducted the cottage here, operated by the Hibernia Bank of New Orleans, for the pleasure and convenience of its officers and employees, has closed the cottage for the season and returned to New Orleans.

The cottage, this season, was over a center of pleasure, and many prominent social events took place there. Pass Christian Correspondent to the Gulfport Herald.

Mrs. Freret, former resident of Bay St. Louis, well and popularly known here, has many friends who will learn with pleasure of her success as hostess of the Hibernia Cottage.

UNCLE SAM SPENDS $90,000 ON GULFPORT HARBOR THIS FALL.

Funds amounting to $90,000 will be available this year for work on the harbor and channel at Gulfport, under an appropriation made by the river and harbors division of the war department and Major Earl North, district engineer, is arranging to put the dredge "Pascagoula" to work on the channel so says the Mobile Register of recent date.

The culmination of a long fight by the business men of Gulfport to have the channel worked came last week when the war department made an appropriation of $50,000 for the work. The fund will be added to by $40,000, which is received for rent of the dredge "Gulfport."

"The Pascagoula" will be stationed at Gulfport for about five months while the channel is dredged to 20 feet. The cross currents which flow over the channel cause it to fill rapidly, and as no work has been done in over a year, the channel is shallow in some places.

Business men of Gulfport started a campaign to have the channel work resumed and Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, took up the fight in Washington. Major North was asked to make a survey of the proposed improvements, making a report of his inspection to Washington.

When you see a man who does not appreciate the value of having good credit, you can put it down that he is not worthy of credit, or in other words he is not prompt and zealous about meeting his obligations. It is not the amount of capital one has that gives him credit, but the way he meets his obligations. Good credit is a valuable asset to anyone, but a person should not abuse it, should not obtain credit when he does not need it. The man who is entitled to credit is the man whose word is as good as his bond. He does not need to give security to meet any indebtedness, though he is always willing to give ample security for anything he owes. The man who is not willing and does not like to give security is the one who should be required to give it. The way a man treats his credit or meets his financial obligations (or other obligations for that matter) is an indication of his character and how well his word can be relied upon. A man who is proud of his credit is proud of his character, and does everything possible to preserve and uphold it—not simply because of policy, but from a standpoint of principle.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

The news of the passing away of the infant was received with much sorrow by friends and with general regret by the townspeople.

—The auction sale at the Bay Jewelry Store, every afternoon and evening, from today and all through next week, will attract many ladies and gentlemen. You are cordially invited by the management to be present. Many beautiful articles will be offered for sale and Remember, You Make the Price!

—A party who found a paper of monetary value in Main street recently, wishes to have its owner recover same, and has come to The Echo office with a view of locating the owner. Loser will call at this office, describe the paper, its face value, etc., and name of finder will be given.

—Little Miss Myrtle Kergosien celebrated her 3rd birthday anniversary last Friday evening at the home of her parents in Carroll avenue and Second street in a most enjoyable manner. Quite a number of invited little friends were present, various games played and refreshments served. Mrs. Kergosien was assisted in entertaining the little ones by Miss Elsie Mauffray and Miss Clara Kergosien.

—Announcement from Jackson is to the effect that George R. Powell of the Mississippi Sunday School Association, has left that city for a number of county conventions which will be held in the south central part of the state. His itinerary is as follows: Smith County, Mize, October 19th; Jones County, Soso, October 22nd; Harrison County, Gulfport, October 23rd; Hancock County, Kiln and Bay St. Louis, October 25th; Lamar County, Purvis, October 27th; Forest County, Hattiesburg, October 28th.

—Oyster Commissioners for the Mississippi Coast made an official visit of the oyster bed in this vicinity Thursday, and the result was very satisfactory. Commissioner Speace informs The Echo that the oyster beds in the bay, on the inside of the L. and N. bridge were not only plentiful but of unusual size, and the beds on the outside of the bridge were also found to be productive. Mayor R. W. Webb was a guest of the commissioners while on their trip of inspection.

—The Echo appreciates greetings from its good friend, Rev. Father Nelius Downing, who was recently transferred from Biloxi to Clarksdale, where he has been made pastor-in-charge. On way to his charge, Father Downing was taken quite ill, but has fully recovered and once more is actively engaged in the discharge of his ministerial duties. An interesting letter from Father Downing concerning the restoration of conditions in the Delta section of Mississippi appears in this issue of The Echo.

—It is well worthy of mention that Hancock County captured the first prize for educational exhibit at the Mississippi State Fair, held in Jackson last week. This was represented by Kiln Consolidated School. Thousands of people viewed the interesting exhibit and favorable comment was unanimous. Mr. Powell, superintendent of the school, and Miss Quarrels, of the Kiln school, who accompanied the exhibit, were justly proud of the fine showing made and the recognition received. Hancock's exhibit was also accompanied by County Superintendent of Education, T. E. Kellar and County Agent, S. F. O'Neal. The Fair at Jackson was larger than ever and the crowds attending from over the State was a record-breaker.

—It is pleasant to note the recovery of Mr. Alfred J. de Moulinsin, who is up and out again at his accustomed place of business, cordially greeting his many friends.

—Mrs. Claud Mond has returned from a most delightful stay at Hot Springs, Ark., where she spent a while in rest and recreation pastimes, and added largely to her list of friends and acquaintances.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ladner came out from New Orleans during the week and are spending a while visiting at the home of Mr. Ladner's brothers, Messrs. Burton and Tony Ladner. Former sheriff of this county and well and favorably known Mr. Ladner is gladly greeted by all who meet him.

—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lorch and the Misses Lorch left during the early part of the week for their home at 2823 Napoleon avenue, New Orleans, where they will spend the winter, however, Mr. and Mrs. Lorch will make week-end trips to Bay St. Louis practically all the winter, and it will be a pleasure to see these people in our midst during the winter.

—Material has arrived on the beach, east of Hale place, for Mr. E. G. Butts who has let the contract for the building of a veritable cottage-by-the-sea, and which he and Mrs. Butts will occupy when completed. The cottage will be raised, resting on concrete, and above storm level; situated on the beach side of the street, directly over the white sand. It will be one of the most unique and interesting structures of its kind on the seacoast, and its appearance will be very attractive, to say nothing of the interior which will combine every element of a comfortable and beautiful home.

—Frank Martin, of New Orleans, has purchased the bungalow in Julia street, built and owned by E. G. Butts whose place was one of beauty to the eye and enjoyment to the mind of all who passed by and viewed the place. Mr. Martin has already taken possession of the place. He is owner of many white leghorn chickens, and in order to accommodate his immense flock he is already adding to the splendid pens which Mr. Butts had built. The amount of improvements he is adding to the place is considerable. Mr. Martin will make Bay St. Louis his permanent place of abode.

—With the approach of All Saints Day, the matter of purchasing flowers to be used as tribute on that day to the memory of the departed loved ones, becomes uppermost in the average mind. To relieve the uncertainty of being able to procure flowers and to the best advantage and with the least inconvenience, attention is called to the display advertisement of Messrs. J. B. Adams and Sons, of Pass Christian, which appears elsewhere in this issue of The Echo. This firm is one of the oldest and reliable ones between and including Mobile and New Orleans, and an order sent now will receive the very best and safest attention. Either telephone or write direct.

—On page 3 of this issue of The Echo appears the half page advertisement of the Bay Jewelry Store, G. E. Temple, the enterprising and wide-awake proprietor. The advertisement announces an auction sale, which will begin today and continue all of next week, every afternoon at 2:30 and 7:30 P. M. Read the advertisement for further and full information. The Bay Jewelry Store finds its stock unusually large for this time of year, and desiring to make room for the new stock due about the first of the year, it has become necessary to hold this auction sale. The slogan is, "Remember, You Make the Price." This is self-explanatory.

With a new and commodious boat in commission, Captain Drackett intends to make the ferry more popular than ever.

—Messrs. A. Battistella and R. N. Blaise, who have purchased the name, business and general good will of the Bay Sea Food Company, have actively taken charge of the business and there is much activity daily on their pier at the head of Washington street. Their daily shipments of fish have been considerable, and the industry affords much work to boats and their crews. This is a means of considerable new money flowing into local channels.

—It has been estimated that some forty or fifty thousand gallons of syrup will be manufactured this fall from cane grown in Hancock County. Even at 50 cents a gallon this would mean a considerable for the central and upper portion of the county, where most of the cane is grown and syrup manufactured. The cane acreage in Hancock County grows each year, and now the manufacture of "guaranteed pure syrup" has become an industry of considerable importance. Much of the product comes from the Lee Town vicinity.

—Primary department of the Central School, Miss. Celine Fayard, teacher, received a new victoria this week for use in the class room to entertain and to instruct the little ones. The machine was purchased at home, from the Bay Jewelry Store and since it was for the school and for educational purposes, Mr. Temple, the proprietor, made a reduction which has helped in making the purchase possible.

—Postal Inspector Hargrove was a Bay St. Louis visitor a few days since and visited many of the business patrons, inquiring as to the efficiency of the local office and what kind of service the people were receiving. The result of his visit was to the effect that the service is very good, prompt and at all times efficient and the force working at the office were ever courteous and obliging.

PICAYUNE ICE COMPANY TO INSTALL CANNING FACTORY.

In addition to the $30,000.00 ice plant, erected and put into service on record time last spring, there will be a canning factory for canning home-grown products by next year. Mr. R. W. Taylor, the owner of the ice plant, has "sawed wood and said nothing" but with the ice season closing, he has announced his plans which are already under way for the erection of an up-to-date canning factory that will mean more for the farmers and home for Picayune.

FOR MADES

Little Jacket Feature of New Spring Outfits.

Garment is jaunty and winsome. At- tain of Fairly Straight and Unified Lines.

Close beside the spring tailleur of classic lines, and fullness of braiding or trimming, there appears this spring that pretty little dressy suit so unconventional in many ways.

The new little jackets are called by the French "paletots secs," and they are jaunty little affairs of fairly straight and unified lines. They end at just about the waistline, unbelled, but with loose and rippling where they are fastened.

Jean Paton shows the palestose that is quite short with a very line at the bottom that rather slumps toward the back than otherwise. A suit of this type is made of moroccan crepe in very dark blue faced with silk printed in the designs and colors of a cashmere shawl. The little jacket, by the way, is reversible and is well suited in either role to the little one-piece frock that is designed to be worn with it.

Most of these short coats are made to accompany the one-piece dress rather than the separate blouse with its skirt to match the coat. Sometimes, indeed, the coat buttons to the frock instead of being fastened together, as is the time-honored way with coats either long or short. Often the upper section of the dress is made of some lighter material than the Spring Tailleur Developed in Blue lower section which matches the coat, and again the whole frock may be of a heavy silk, while the coat is of some woolen fabric matching it in color.

Indeed, at most of the couturiers there are to be seen these two distinct types of street suits for spring, one that is strictly tailored, having a coat that reaches the knees or even below that line, and the other that in some way shows a fanciful little coat or one of the shorter capes.

CREPE DE CHINE IS POPULAR

Fabric Strongly Featured in French Capital and is Expected to Assert Itself Here.

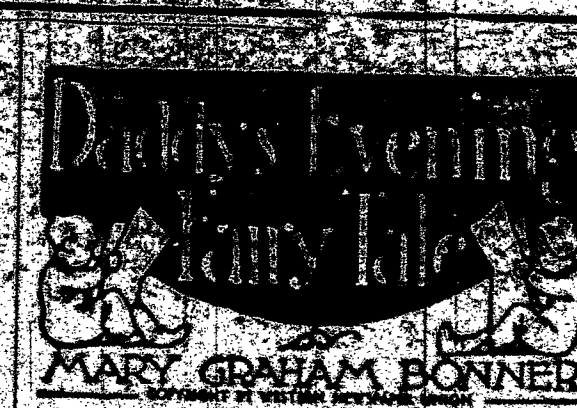

Crepe de chine at present is one of the most featured fabric fabrics in the French capital and undoubtedly it will assert its way in this country. It is also one of the most durable of lingerie materials and trimmed with point de Paris, or Calais lace or tucked in the more tailored modes fashions some of the smartest of undergarments.

Crepe satin, radium, gros de Londres and georgettes are other fabrics, while Corrickmacross, rose fillet and Irish crochets are lace in vogue as trimmings. Double white and flesh, such shades as raspberry, Neptune green, honeydew and jonquil are popular.

The Parisian is very partial to the long chemise or princess slip. Some of these are developed in georgette with many rows of plaits, others are trimmed with lace, fillet and Calais, the lace often being cascaded from the hips and draping to the hem.

Plaisanterie ribbon is used to form the bodice on some of the newest slips, the ribbon being of georgette undergarments.

DANCING TREES.

"We're going to have a dance," said the Sunbeams, "and we're going to dance all day."

"Oh, do invite us to the dance," begged the Aspen trees, cousins of the Poplar trees.

"We would love to have you come to the dance," said the Sunbeams. "Would you mind having it near where we live?" asked the Aspens, "because you know we cannot travel away though we can dance."

"It would be a pleasure," said the Sunbeams.

"May we come too?" asked the Breeze Brothers.

"We're willing," said the Sunbeams. "We're willing," said the Aspens.

"We're really delighted you want to come to our party," the Sunbeams added.

"And we always feel very friendly with you," the Aspens said.

"Tell us," said the Sunbeams, "why you're called the Trembling Aspens or Shaking Aspens, or whatever it is you're always called?"

"You are supposed to be very nervous and shaky because you tremble all the time,"

"We'll tell you," said the Aspens, "but we cannot stop shaking even when we do. But it isn't really shaking we do, it is dancing!"

"Yes, so many creatures think we are trembling with fear and that we are very nervous. But, oh, dear how wrong they are!"

"We're so nervous, we're not trembling because we're afraid. We couldn't be afraid the world is too lovely!"

"When there are Sunbeams and Breeze Brothers for friends, why would we be afraid?"

"We aren't! That is the answer to that question we've asked."

"Oh, Sunbeams and Breeze Brothers, the Aspens aren't nervous and they don't tremble from fear. Never let anyone tell you that."

"They shake all the time because that is the way they have of dancing. They love to dance. They never grow weary of dancing!"

"When there is hardly any breeze at all we dance because we beg the very tiniest little breeze to play with us."

"And they all will play with us! They will come along and ask us if we're tired. But we're never, never tired!"

"We always like to dance."

"At the springtime we have pretty gay catkins which grow out of our buds. We give a dance then. When we're fixing our spring clothes we dance."

"When we're changing our costumes we dance. When we become lovely green leaves we dance."

"That is why we asked you, Sunbeams, to let us join your dance today. Sometimes we've danced along with you when you've hardly noticed us. But we understood that. For you were so busy dancing yourselves."

"And now, Breeze Brothers, we've haven't known always that we were dancing with you because you've been busy taking messages around for the fairies, or doing some other little errands, or else playing, or dancing yourselves."

"But we've never missed a chance. Never, never, never! The Aspens are never still. When the other trees are quiet and having an afternoon nap on a summer's day, we, the Aspens, are dancing gaily."

"Come, Sunbeams, let us all dance hard and fast now, and Breeze Brothers, help us to dance nice and merry dances!"

"For we love to dance, oh, we love to dance."

"And we always do when we get the chance."

"And the chance comes often for we never miss one."

"Dancing to us is the greatest of fun!"

And the Aspen leaves danced on the Aspen trees, even as they chatted.

A Good Time Coming.

There was company at dinner, and the son and heir listened to the conversation. During the meal an animated discussion arose regarding the feeling which some one maintained still existed between the North and the South. The minister remarked:

"The time is coming, not far off when there will be no north, south east or west, and—"

"Won't that be splendid!" interrupted little Willie.

"Why does that interest you?" asked the boy's astonished parent.

"Because it will be so much easier to learn geography."

Grains Scattered in Litter Compel Hens to Exercise—Green Feed Also Digestion.

All scratch feed or whole grain should be scattered in the litter, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Having the feed scattered in the litter, the hens will be compelled to exercise, and this will help them to digest their food.
